

CRS Newsletter February 11, 2022

Dear Members and Fellows of the CRS, dear subscribers of the CRS mailing list

With this newsletter we provide information and activities related to reproducibility and scientific integrity. You will also find information about activities conducted by the CRS.

Content

1. ReproducibiliTea in the Spring semester
 2. Good Research Practice courses in the Spring semester
 3. Disk4U: new courses on Open and Reproducible Science in the Spring semester
 4. SwissRN: renewed funding, call for participation
 5. SwissRN Academy: first online event
 6. Publication Alert: Same data, different conclusions: Radical dispersion in empirical results when independent analysts operationalize and test the same hypothesis

1. The Spring 2022 semester ReproducibiliTea program is taking shape: we will start with two presentations related to the Reproducibility Project: Cancer Biology. All participants are welcome as usual! More information here. Let us know if you wish to present, there are still some slots open!
 2. The CRS Good Research Practice course in collaboration with the Graduate Campus will take place on June 10 and 24 (through the graduate campus: phd, postdoc).
 3. A new PhD-level course will be given at the Faculty of Arts and Social Sciences: From Design to Replication: Make Your Research Fully Reproducible (see course catalogue, March 11, 18, 25).
 4. Also new in the Spring 2022 semester are Bachelor and Master level courses on Open and Reproducible Science through the School of Transdisciplinary Studies as part of the DISK4U project of UZH (see course catalogue).
 5. The SNSF has renewed its support for the Swiss Reproducibility Network (SwissRN), stressing again the importance of the mission and goals. The CRS is the UZH local node of SwissRN. We are looking for members and fellows who would want to engage in the SwissRN activities, see here for examples.
 6. The SwissRN Academy is a group of Early Career Researchers from Swiss universities who are interested in reproducibility, metascience, good research practices, and transparency. Details on <https://www.swissrn.org/academy/>. Their first online meeting will take place on Friday, Feb 25 (16:00 - 17:15). Please encourage your PhD students to consider participation!
