

CRS Newsletter October 17, 2019

Dear Members and Fellows of the CRS, dear subscribers of the CRS mailing list

With this newsletter we will provide information and activities related to reproducibility and scientific integrity. You will also find activities by the CRS. For future newsletters, please let us know of any information that is worthwhile spreading.

Content

1. Next ReproducibiliTea
2. Talk "Statistical analysis in small sample research in biomedicine"
3. Coffee lecture at the main library
4. Workshop "Incorporation of historical data in clinical trials"
5. Other events at UZH: GRC Annual Ceremony

1. The next ReproducibiliTea is next week on Thursday at 16:00 at the EBPI (HIT E 03, Hirschengraben 82, see <https://www.plaene.uzh.ch/HIT/library>). Simon Schwab will present the following paper: Why we need to report more than "Data were analyzed by t-tests or ANOVA", <https://doi.org/10.7554/eLife.36163>. The full program can be found here: <http://www.crs.uzh.ch/en/training/talks/ReproducibiliTea.html>

2. A talk titled "Statistical analysis in small sample research in biomedicine" by Simon Schwab will be held at the Center for Experimental Rheumatology Lab meeting, on Friday 25. October, 9.30-11.00, WAGI12, 6th Floor, room L121/L123, see <https://www.plaene.uzh.ch/campus/S>. External guests are welcome.

3. The main library offers a coffee lecture series in which CRS manager Eva Furrer will talk about "p-Hacking – not a trivial offense" on November 19, 2019, 1:30-1:45 pm Dozentenfoyer on the Irchel Campus (Y22-G-74). See the program for a complete listing of very interesting topics <https://www.hbz.uzh.ch/en/kurse/Kurse-Coffee-Lectures.html>

4. Half-day workshop: Incorporation of historical data in clinical trials, December 13, 2019, 13:00 - 18:00h at Hirschengraben 82, HIT E-03

The goal of this half-day workshop is to discuss recent methodological developments in the incorporation of historical data in clinical trials. The workshop is jointly organized by the Department of Biostatistics at the EBPI, the Center for Reproducible Science at the University of Zurich and the ETH/UZH ZüKoSt Seminar on Applied Statistics. See here for more information: <https://www.crs.uzh.ch/en/training/activities.html>

5. GRC Annual Ceremony 2019 "It takes a village...", 5 November 2019, 6.30pm, Aula, UZH City Campus.

The differences and interplay between mentoring and supervision in doctoral education will be discussed, and the Mercator Awards will be presented to promising early career researchers. Registration is requested: <http://tiny.uzh.ch/Yu>
