1. The Fall 2022 semester ReproducibiliTea program is taking shape. Most importantly, the ReproducibiliTea on October 27 with Dr. Heidi Seibold will take place in the main building. The CRS will provide tea and cookies to extend the discussion after the journal club. Please save the date already!
   As always, note that we still have open slots and please let us know if you want to talk or point us to interesting papers/persons.

2. European Open Science Cloud (EOSC) kick-off meeting: Thursday September 29, 16:00-17:15, online via Zoom (registration is not required)
   You are kindly invited to join this information session and to participate in the build-up of an EOSC community in Switzerland. The programme is as follows:
   - General introduction: what is EOSC and how is it linked to the Swiss Open Research Data Strategy
   - Breakout rooms: community building - meet the people who work for different EOSC Task Forces, data service and infrastructure providers and domain-specific FAIR initiatives
   - Next steps to build up the EOSC community in Switzerland

   For additional information please contact katharina.eggenberger@research.uzh.ch.

3. The DISK4U CRS course "Open and reproducible science: dependable computations and statistics" starts on November 8 and is open for booking until October 8: please help to advertise widely, info slides are available here.

4. The CRS course "Good Research Practice" in collaboration with the Graduate Campus will take place on November 11 and 18 (through the graduate campus: phd, postdoc). Please advertise in your department.

5. The CRS course "From Design to Paper" at PhF will take place on December 5, 9 and 15 (see Course catalogue). Please advertise in your department.

6. The CRS offers Lab pitches: These workshops cover methodological topics regarding reproducibility and good research practice tailored towards the specific situation of the lab. If you are interested please contact us at crs@ebpi.uzh.ch, see here for more information.
