

CRS Newsletter August 25, 2020

Dear Members and Fellows of the CRS, dear subscribers of the CRS mailing list

With this newsletter we provide information and activities related to reproducibility and scientific integrity. You will also find information about activities conducted by the CRS. For future newsletters, please let us know of any information that is worthwhile spreading.

Content

1. ReproducibiliTea in the fall semester: looking for more speakers
2. ZPID's roadshow event for the University of Zurich
3. Reproducibility, Replicability and Trust in Science Virtual Conference at Wellcome Genome Campus
4. Good Research Practice Course I on November 13

1. The remote edition of ReproducibiliTea will continue in the fall semester, please let us know if you want to participate as a speaker, we are looking for at least 2-3 more speakers. The details on how to join ReproducibiliTea will be distributed through our mailing list, if you want to recommend joining to someone, please send them here:
<https://ebpi.lists.uzh.ch/sympa/subscribe/crs>

The already scheduled talks in the fall are:

- "Reproducibility of animal research in light of biological variation", Bernhard Voelkl, University of Bern, September 17, <https://www.nature.com/articles/s41583-020-0313-3>
- "Rethinking Reproducibility as a Criterion for Research Quality", Mark Robinson, University of Zurich, October, <https://www.emerald.com/insight/content/doi/10.1108/S0743-41542018000036B009/full/html>

More details will be given on our website:

2. Please note that a virtual version of the ZPID's roadshow event for the University of Zurich will take place on September 29: Time: 4.15 - 5.45 pm. Prof. Michael Bosnjak, Director of the Leibniz-Institute for Psychology Information, will give a Zoom-Talk on the services that the Leibniz Institute for Psychology Information offers with regard to Open Science. The focus will be on preregistration, archiving, and open access publishing. For further information see <https://leibniz-psychology.org/roadshow/>
Registration is required at <https://docs.google.com/forms/d/1aOs9HEoudxyKmy1JGM-EWmXXYyY5l3Jafc0E3dNjV3o/edit>
3. Reproducibility, Replicability and Trust in Science Virtual Conference is being organized by Wellcome Genome Campus and the UK Reproducibility Network on 09 - 11 September 2020. The theme is "Improving the robustness of scientific research". Registration deadline is 02 September, see <https://coursesandconferences.wellcomegenomecampus.org/our-events/reproducibility-replicability-trust-in-science-2020/>

4. The next edition of our GRP I course will be on November 13. After the successful remote GRP I course on June 12th we decided to keep this flexible modus of teaching. Topics of the GRP I course are scientific integrity, exploratory vs. confirmatory research, study design, open science, preregistration and many practical aspects of reproducible research. Please check our website for further details.
